Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Iraqi Islamic Supreme Council, visited on Thursday, November 27, 2014 the family of the martyr Abu Mustafa Alaidani in the city of Basra.

His eminence recalled the martyr's sacrifices and heroic positions, stressing that it's a great honor that the leaders are themselves the martyrs, which proves to what extent they comply with marja'ia visions and respond to its appeal, praying to Allah the Almighty to bestow his mercy upon the deceased and grant his family patience and solace.
