

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Visits the Representatives of Religious Authority in Basra Sayyid Imad Al Battat, Sayyid Abdel Hakim Al Safi and Sheikh Ali Al Amtouri

In the context of his visit to the city of Basra, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, visited separately the representative of grand religious authorities Sayyid Imad Al Battat, Sayyid Abdel Hakim Al Safi and Sheikh Ali Al Amtouri on Thursday, November 27th, 2014.

His eminence praised the significant role played by the religious authority in preserving Iraq and its project and called on the public to communicate with the representatives and to support the religious authority because it is the way to preserve Iraq and its people .

Also were discussed during the meetings the political developments and the victories achieved by the army and the popular crowd.