

From Basra, Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Participates with the Arba'een Visitors in the Journey to Karbala

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, participated with millions in the march towards Karbala to commemorate the Arba'een visit on Friday, November 28th, 2014. His eminence congratulated the visitors for performing this blessed ritual and prayed to Allah to preserve everyone and to accept their good deeds. He explained that the visitors of Hussain (AS) express their will no matter what the sacrifices and terrorist attempts, confirming that the journey to Hussain is an honor and is a sound phenomenon as we renew the pledge and allegiance to the Messenger of Allah (pbuh).
