

During a Meeting with the Indonesian Ahl al-Bayt Association, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Praises the Altruism Spirit and the Service Provided by the Hussaini Processions and Bodies

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, praised the altruism spirit and the service provided by the Hussaini processions and bodies, and the citizens in general, to the visitors of Abi Abdullah al-Hussain (AS) on the Arba'een gathering, explaining that the million-people crowds moving towards the sacred Karbala are increasing and pouring from all over the world.

This came in a meeting held between his Eminence on Tuesday, 2/12/2014, at his office in Baghdad, and the Indonesian Ahl al-Bayt Association whose delegation is visiting Iraq on the -Arba'een. The delegation said the Indonesian people has so much appreciation and love for al Hakim family for their support for the Islamic countries and their defense of their rights, renewing their pledge to revive the Hussaini rites and to follow the course of the master of the free people, Imam Hussain (AS), in defending the right and rejecting tyranny and slavery.
