

During His Participation in The Procession with al Diwaniyah Citizens towards Karbala', Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Stresses That Hussain (P) Project Is Islamic, Human That Promotes Moral Education

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council in Iraq, confirmed that Imam Hussain project is not a sectarian project but it is a human and Islamic project that promotes moral education, stressing that people who are committed to Hussain will expel ISIS from their homeland.

This came during his eminence's participation in the procession with al Diwaniyah citizens towards Karbala' to commemorate the Arba'een, on Friday, December 5, 2014.

His eminence rejoiced in good news announcing that all the good will be for those people, God willing, expressing his confidence that the people will live in pride and dignity due to his commitment to Hussain project. He noted that this million people procession is an evidence of the understanding of Hussain project and the lucidity of those men, women, elders and children while they cross hundreds of kilometers with such determination and insistence, adding that the way of Hussain makes those walk on it feel proud, and that the Iraqi people have an unparallel will.

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim had the honor to visit Imam Qassim in Hillah, today, on December 5, 2014.