

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Discusses Political and Security Developments and the Situation of Displaced with Dr. Barham Salih

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, received in his office in Baghdad on Monday, December 29, 2014, the leader of the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan Dr. Barham Salih.

His eminence discussed with Salih the political developments in Iraq, the security achievements accomplished by the security forces, the popular crowd and the Peshmerga and the security coordination between everyone in the fight against ISIS, as well as the situation of displaced persons and the need to provide them with the best services.

His eminence highlighted the importance of Iraq's openness to the countries of the neighborhood, the region and the world, as this is the way to explain its project and vision through its bilateral relations with all those countries. He finally called on the countries that Iraq opened to conduct a similar openness so as to ensure everyone's interests.
