

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Visits Ayatollah Al Faqih Hussein Ismail al-Sadr, to Check on his Health Condition and Discuss with him the Security Situation

On January 14, 2014, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, visited Ayatollah Al Faqih Hussein Ismail al-Sadr in the latter's office in Kadhimiya, Baghdad. His Eminence checked on the health condition of Sayyid al-Sadr who has just recovered from an illness, asking God to protect him and to bestow upon him good health, while praising his uniting rhetoric.

Moreover, both sides discussed the security developments in Iraq and the victories achieved by the security apparatuses, the Popular Crowd and the Peshmerga against the ISIS gangs.