Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, called to double the efforts in providing the care for the wounded members of the security forces, the popular crowd, the original Iraqi tribes and the Peshemerga, valuing the medical services offered to the wounded and calling to multiply them, while also praising the high spirit of the wounded who want to recover quickly so that they can return to the battlefields of Jihad.

This came during a visit made on 13/2/2015 by his Eminence to the wounded members of the security forces, the popular crowd, the original Iraqi tribes and the Peshemerga in Baghdad Medical City.

His Eminence said he was happy to see the Iraqi diversity among the zealous wounded from Anbar, Mosul, Tikrit, Basra and Najaf. In his opinion, this diversity indicates the unity of Iraqis against terrorism and that they can beat it with their unity and determination.
