

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Calls on Al Mowaten Bloc to Keep Working on Enacting the Key Laws that Touch the Citizens' Life

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, called on the members of Al Mowaten bloc to keep working on enacting the key laws, urging the bloc to communicate with the other blocs at the Parliament to contribute to the success of the parliamentary action which is the lifeblood of the political process and the new Iraq.

This came during a meeting held between his Eminence on Saturday, February 14, 2015 at his office in Baghdad and the members of Al Muwaten bloc.

His Eminence called to take advantage of the positive climate between the political powers to enact the important laws, stressing the importance of keeping in touch with the people and listen to their problems.
