

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Insists on Giving Special Care to the Injured Members of the Popular Crowd and the Families of Martyrs

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, stressed the need to give special care and double efforts to the injured members of the popular crowd and the security forces and to the families of martyrs. His eminence indicated that those who answer the religious authority's call for jihad are manifesting the most amazing representations of heroism in their defense of every span of Iraqi land, until all Iraq is freed from ISIS, calling to confront the voices of discord that are trying to weaken the popular crowd. This came during his eminence's meeting with the citizen's bloc in the parliament and the council of ministers, and the heads of blocs in local governments, held in his office in Baghdad on Monday, February 23, 2015.

His eminence highlighted the importance of providing services to citizens and implementing the program of the citizen's coalition with available means, stressing the need to enact laws that serve and protect the interest of citizens. He finally urged everyone to pursue the communication with the rest of the blocs and to open up to them.
