

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim Meets His Majesty King of Jordan Abdullah II

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, met His Majesty King of Jordan Abdallah II at al Husseiniya palace in Amman, on Sunday, 23/3/2015.

His eminence discussed with the king of Jordan the security and political developments in the region, as well as the war that Iraq is waging against ISIS on behalf of the states of the region and the world. His eminence called everyone to join efforts in order to eliminate the cancerous tumor that ISIS represents for the region. He also reiterated his call to build a security system formed of the regional states to counter terrorism and extremist thought.