

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Receives the First Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of Iran and Discusses with Him the Developments of the Political Situations in the Region

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, discussed at his office in Baghdad on Wednesday, 1/4/2015 with the first deputy minister of foreign affairs of Iran, Mr. Morteza Sarmadi, the developments of the security and political situations in the region and Yemen events, as well as the bilateral relationships and the last developments of the Iranian nuclear program discussions with P5+1 group.

His Eminence stressed the importance of developing the relations between Iraq and Iran, reiterating his appreciation for the quick response of Iran to assist Iraq in its war against the most heinous takfiri powers.