

In a Meeting with Secretary General of Islamic Fadhila Party, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Stresses the Need to Adhere to Political Commitments in State-Building

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq, stressed the need to adhere to political commitments in the state-building and promote the national unity, calling on all political parties to develop a political project that guarantees a smooth transit for the next stage, as he stressed the importance to end the file of state administration by proxy.

This came in a meeting with the Secretary General of Islamic Fadhila Party, Hashem al-Hashemi, and his accompanying delegation, on Thursday, April 16, 2015.

During the meeting, they discussed the political and security developments in the country and the organization of National Alliance's conditions, where they highlighted the importance of supporting the achievements and sacrifices of the popular crowd heroes while defending their homeland and the need to address the fierce attack against the crowd to overshadow the victories they are achieving.